Lacrosse enthusiasts of Edmonton want to stage an exhibition lacrosse game at the celebration of confederation on July 2. A meeting has been called to make arrangements for this event in the Y. M. C. A. building on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

It is the intention of those promoting the scheme to organize two teams of boys ranging in age from 13 to 15 years. Percy Glass, of lacrosse fame, is the prime mover and desires a large turnout of boys on Tuesday night; also he wants other lacrosse enthusiasts to give him a hand.

It is proposed to play the game in the horse show building at the exhibition grounds, and in order to ensure a supply of sticks a request has been issued to owners of these articles to kindly loan them to the teams. Those intending to do this are asked to leave a communication at the Y. M. C. A. before the meeting.

Rumler Of St. Louis In Third Place.

CHICAGO, June 16.—For the first time since August, 1916, Ty Cobb is leading the American league in batting.

Coming from behind with a rush, the Detroit star deposited Tim Speaker of Cleveland, to whom he surrendered championship batting honors last season. The Georgian's average is .353, according to unofficial figures released today, which include games of Wednesday. Speaker is three points behind him.

Cobb has driven out 61 hits in 47 games, including 12 doubles, nine triples and one home run. Ruth, the Boston pitching star, who has won 11 out of 14 games, also is hitting at a terrific pace, having an average of .415 for sixteen games. Russell, a Chicago pitcher, has batted .346 for 15 games.

Chapman, of Cleveland, was dethroned as the leading base stealer. Roth, a team-mate, has nosed him out with 17. Chapman, however, still is a possibility of regaining his honors with 20. Young, of Detroit, continues to press Weaver, of Chicago, for the lead in runs scored. Weaver is in front with 36. Boston is showing the way in team batting with .342.

Leading batters who have participated in half their club's games: Cobb, Detroit, .353; Speaker, Cleveland, .350; Rumler, St. Louis, .333; Ames, St. Louis, .321; Sieler, St. Louis, .303; Veach, Detroit, .304; Vambeaux, Cleveland, .301; Chapman, Cleveland, .297; Strunk, Philadelphia, .295.

ORAL BETTING
IN CANADA?

Since it became definitely known that gambling on race tracks was to stop until after the war, many of those interested in the turf have expressed the belief that a system of oral betting will be inaugurated on the tracks after the armistice is proclaimed. The oral system is employed on the New York tracks, but its adoption here is a question.

The tracks would derive no revenue therefrom, and it is extremely doubtful if any track could exist off the gate receipts alone. In fact, it is certain that they could not. The reason is that the admission charge is 4, whereas it is $1.50 on the larger tracks in Canada, and less on the hial farms, and they get much larger crowds at the meetings in New York.

The quality of racing would suffer accordingly, and it is doubtful if the attendance would be as large under an oral system of betting as under the mutual system. The more likely outlook is that with betting abolished the tracks will go out of business until after the war.

POPULAR BOY

Willie Mitchell, the Tiger southpaw, is certainly making himself popular with the Detroit fans. Not so, however, with the followers of other teams. Willie's work is getting better all the time and seems to have been given an extra spurt after he recently pitched his second shut-out game in the season, the Yankees being the sufferers.

NO WORD OF MURTON

No further word concerning Phil Sub-Lut, Harry Murton, of Toronto has been heard. He was reported missing from the naval air service several weeks ago. It is said that he had been in a bombing flight weeks before being reported missing. Murton, known as "Sport," was well-known eastern lacrosse player.

"The Mimic World," greatest vaudeville creation that ever played popular priced houses, a one-hour musical comedy, with company of 30 people, will be the head-line attraction this week at the Pantages Theatre. This is the act which has been breaking records everywhere it has appeared in New York City, and is expected to create a sensation in Edmonton. It is a play of youth, of life, of happiness and mirth, filled with everything that goes to make the stage world wide. It has a "chicken" chorus of 22, a score of the prettiest, cutest little kiddies ever seen on any stage, all dressed fresh and unspoiled by stage life. There are only three men in the act, all the rest, visions of the clever little girls, Helen and Olga, who have been the stars of the Pantages garden of love, to borrow a phrase from the enthusiastic press agent, all of whom will offer impressions of famous stars of the stage. Although dealing with the civil war period, "The Crisis" follows a wholly different trend from "The Birth of a Nation." It is a picture of Winston Churchill's novel of St. Louis in the dark and stormy period of the rebellion, and follows faithfully the rich, romantic plot of the Churchill story. Abraham Lincoln is an essential character in the story, and the tangled threads of romance that involve the Northern hero and the Southern heroine, and is not dragged into the play merely for the sake of historical background. History, indeed, is so closely woven with romance that it will take an expert student of the period to discover the line of demarcation.

Among the striking scenes of the play are a slave auction in St. Louis, where the hero and heroine first meet and clash;

the Lincoln-Douglas debate, amidst torch-light processions and bonfires in the back-woods of Illinois; the fall of Ft. Sumter, with the Stars and Stripes, going down for the first time before the cannonading of an internal foe; a meeting of Lincoln's cabinet to consider plans for saving the Union; and the battle of Vicksburg, fought in detail from both the land and the river. The thread of Churchill's romance runs through the entire play, and ends in a love with sight, of even in the smoke of battle.

MELODRAMATIC FILM ALL THIS WEEK AT THE EMPIRE THEATRE

"The Whip," as it played with phenomenal success in New York for a year, was the best example of spectacular melodrama that London's famous home of melodrama, Drury Lane, played for two years in London; the only spectacle that ever did, and then for a year at the Manhattan Opera House, under the management of William Brady. It comes to the Empire Theatre this afternoon for a week's run of two performances daily.

"The Whip" is in eight parts, and each part has a startling dramatic situation, a railroad collision, a mob scene, and a thrilling race, a real race, at the famous Saratoga course. Horses and dogs and action abound—something doing every minute—and through all this runs a pretty love story.

"The Whip" is the name of the best racing mare ever bred by old Judge Beverley, a gallant sportsman, who maintains a whole establishment of thoroughbreds. The affections of the kindly old Judge are divided between his beautiful daughter, Diana, and this really fine racehorse. Into their lives comes Hubert Branchester, a young man of good family who lives on a nearby estate; Baron Sartoris, a bogus nobleman, coming with a letter of introduction from Europe, and Mrs. D'Aquila, an adventuress. The fortunes of Branchester become involved, through the fault of his own, with these two swindlers on an ocean trip, and he is not at all clear of them when he meets and falls in love with Miss Diana. They wish that lady to marry the bogus Baron, and they lay traps for him, and fast the path of young Branchester. Real adventures follow, culminating in a wonderful race at Saratoga.

LOVE AND WAR IN "THE DARK SILENCE"

When any director undertakes the making of a love story combined with the thrilling incidents of the European war, he realizes that he is up against a hard proposition. Such pictures do not lack interest, but they strain every faculty of the director's mind in order that numerous details may be mastered above criticism. The famous director, Albert Capellani, left nothing for the imagination in the production of "The Dark Silence" is a Far-Island play of remarkable fidelity as to its locale, and in it Miss Young appears as a brilliantly gifted and self-sacrificing young artist and war nurse, whose love for a man as noble in character as in birth is nearly destroyed through the machinations of a sinister rival. It is timely, having a few high class battle scenes, and the emotion in the hospital following an infantry engagement, is the most realistic ever filmed. Throughout Miss Young plays with all the strength of expression which has marked her former successes, and is the centre of a picture that will please all who follow her offerings. The pains and joys of the varying emotions with which the character of Mildred is confronted are expressed in this film as only Clara Kimball Young can express them. The Empress management announces here the coming next week of Anita Stewart in "The Girl Philippa," a big Vitaphone production from the pen of Robert Chambers, known wherever English is spoken as America's greatest novelist, which was shown in Edmonton only a few weeks ago. In this production Miss Stewart reaches the highest point of her dramatic achievements.

"Publicity men tell of current attractions on the screen in Local Picture Houses"

MUCH DISCUSSED MOTION PICTURE AT THE MONARCH

Kept prisoner in a magnificent home in South Africa, a young woman wanders out into the garden on a moonlit tropical night. A young man, striding with Jung's fever and half delirious, eludes his servants, and in his aimless roaming of the streets, finds his way into the retreat, the gate of which has been inadvertently left unlocked. The two fall in love at sight, and part after one ecstatic hour, not learning each other's names. The man is taken back to his bed, and for weeks is unconscious, in his terrific fight for life. When he recovers the vision of the girl in the garden seems only a part of his delirium. This is one of the most important situations in "Poppy," a big Seisnick-Picture production which will be the feature attraction at the Monarch theatre all this week.

The star of the photodrama is Miss Norma Talmage, whose recent successes, "Panther" and "The Law of Compensation," have placed her in the front rank of screen favorites. The story is taken from a play by Ben Tait and John P. Ritter, which is based upon the popular novel by Edward Jose, who formerly lived in South Africa, and has given the scenes a strikingly realistic flavor.

Miss Talmage, as Poppy Destin, appears as a poor, maltreated waif. She runs away from home and is befriended by Abinger, who later marries her, the ceremony being performed in French, and Poppy told that it is merely a formal adoption. Abinger keeps his secret until Poppy, reaching womanhood, demands that she be permitted to make outside acquaintances, as she is kept a prisoner in Abinger's home. She falls in love with another man, and then learns that she is Abinger's wife. How she carries out her determination to make her own way in the world, and finally returns to face both men she have come into her life, and win her happiness forms a fascinating and romantic story.

Among the stars will be the clever little girls, Helen and Olga, who have been the stars of the Pantages garden of love, to borrow a phrase from the enthusiastic press agent, all of whom will offer impressions of famous stars of the stage.

Although dealing with the civil war period, "The Crisis" follows a wholly different trend from "The Birth of a Nation." It is a picture of Winston Churchill's novel of St. Louis in the dark and stormy period of the rebellion, and follows faithfully the rich, romantic plot of the Churchill story. Abraham Lincoln is an essential character in the story, and the tangled threads of romance that involve the Northern hero and the Southern heroine, and is not dragged into the play merely for the sake of historical background. History, indeed, is so closely woven with romance that it will take an expert student of the period to discover the line of demarcation.

Among the striking scenes of the play are a slave auction in St. Louis, where the hero and heroine first meet and clash;

GERMANS ADMIT FOOD TROUBLES LOOMING AHEAD
 Confess Officially Shortage of Potatoes and Inadequacy of Grain Stocks

Copenhagen, June 16, via London.—Official admission of food difficulties in Germany, resulting from a shortage of potatoes and the inadequacy of grain stocks to afford a supplementary ration, is made in an announcement of the food control department. The announcement states that the five pound potato ration, which has long been only official fiction, will hereafter be abandoned and that, while an attempt will be made to supplement bread in place of potatoes, the quantity must be reduced.

DISTRICT CROPS COMING ON WELL
 Seeding of All But Greenfeed I Practically Complete—Soil in Good Condition

The grain crops of the district about Edmonton are growing amply, and now that all the seed for the grain crops is done the weather is assisting the farmer in getting up for lost time and to catch up after a late start at seeding. In many places the season was later than usual but the prospects are now better than usual.

The farmers are now busy finishing the seeding of green feed or getting ready for breaking the more land. There is both patriotism and pride in increasing the area of cultivated land. The prospect of scarcity of food in 1918, and the fact that wheat, oats and barley are striving to their utmost capacity to grow and develop into a grand aggregate of millions of bushels of food for the allied nations.

The following crop reports are from the local correspondents of the Bulletin, giving the viewpoint of the farmers on the land:

At Turnip Lake, to the north of the city, the seeding is practically all done except for a few acres of alfalfa. The season was later than usual, but the prospects are even more favorable owing to more moisture in the ground.

At Belmore, to the northeast of the city, practically all the crop is seeded.

At Poplar Lake, to the northeast of the city, the seeding is practically all done except for a few acres of alfalfa. The season was later than usual, but the prospects are even more favorable owing to more moisture in the ground.

At Elkhart, to the northeast of the city, crops are looking fine but a little rain is needed.

At Northbank, northeast of the city, the seeding is practically all done except for a few acres of alfalfa. The season was later than usual, but the prospects are even more favorable owing to more moisture in the ground.

At Fawn, to the northeast of the city, the seeding is practically all done except for a few acres of alfalfa. The season was later than usual, but the prospects are even more favorable owing to more moisture in the ground.

At Spirit River, to the northwest of the city, crops are up about five inches on an average and the prospects are looking good for a good crop this year. There is a plenty of moisture and the farmers are very hopeful.

At Fort Assiniboine, on the Athabasca, to the northwest of the city, rain fell on June 15th and benefited both the grain fields and the gardens.

At Firth, to the northwest of the city, seeding is well advanced. The recent rains did not interfere very materially with the progress of the work. The cold of the past few days has somewhat retarded the growth.

At Tarnford, northwest of the city, seeding is pretty nearly finished. There is a big acreage in crop this year. The wheat came up in four to five days after the seeding.

At St. Albert, to the northwest of the city, and around, the grain is beginning to look green and most of the seeding is finished. The prospects are looking quite up to the average if not over, and the nice night's rain of Wednesday will help to forward vegetation.

At Bertha, to the southwest of the city, seeding is over and most of the grain is up. Spring was late.

At Mahaska, to the west of the city, the crops are getting along famously. The potato crop is also in first-class condition.

At Kesteven, to the southwest of the city, the favorable weather delayed seeding. The grain looks fresh for a recent shower, but the dull days and cool nights were not good for growing crops.

They are accused of trying to prevent registration for the selective draft. Both waived examination.

At Jordan Hills, to the south of the city, the crops are looking very well. Some will yet put in the green feed. Everyone seems to realize that potatoes are profitable and have been planted more than ever. With good weather the crops will soon be ahead of last year.

The following are the crop reports loaned from the country town newspapers in the districts tributary to Edmonton:

At Lundemo grain has made a promising start, appearing healthy, and no doubt with a favorable season on many wishes and wants will again be gratified.—Camrose Canadian.

At Eagle Hill crops are looking fine this Gazette.

At Round Hill seeding is now finished, with the exception of green feed. Farmers are looking for a late start, while would do great good.—Camrose Canadian.

At Grousemont the greater part of the season's crop is now in the ground. The spring came rather late this year the area under cultivation has increased considerably over the last year. At Grousemont, B. C., near G. C. west, the abundant rains and warm growing weather are doing the best to compensate for the late start. At Francis Lake, B. C., near G. C. west, the abundant rains and warm growing weather are doing the best to compensate for the late start. At Francis Lake, B. C., near G. C. west, the abundant rains and warm growing weather are doing the best to compensate for the late start.

At Sedgewick there has been a rain along with the report and the farmers are getting anxious. Fortunately the weather has been cool and cloudy, so that the crops are not further damaged by a hot sun. Only the small amount of water in the ground at the beginning of the season has saved the crop so far. Grass is splendid, with stock looking fine. The report covers a large section of Alberta adjacent to Sedgewick district.

NEW PRESIDENT CANADIAN PRESS
 Question of Eliminating Trades and Class Paper Section Postponed

TORONTO, June 16.—After a long debate that followed the sectional meetings of the Canadian Press Association yesterday afternoon, it was finally decided that the matter of eliminating the trades and class paper section should be laid over for another year, for a special meeting to be called by the board of directors, if they should deem it desirable.

The following motions were carried: "The government advertising placed through agencies should be given to printers at card rates and the agency reimbursed by the government."

"That newspapers should get advertising direct from the government without commission."

In order to make up for losses in membership, the Canadian Press Association, in a resolution, agreed to increase the fee for the year, a revision upward of the fee was carried.

The nominating committee's report, with the following names, was unanimously adopted:

President, J. H. Woods, Calgary Herald; past-president, J. G. Elliott, Kingston Whig; vice-presidents, representing each of the six territorial divisions: British Columbia and Yukon divisions, R. Sutherland, Nelson News; Alberta division, M. R. Jensen, Edmonton Journal; Saskatchewan division, W. G. Gates, Moose Jaw News; Manitoba division, E. H. Macklin, Winnipeg Free Press; Ontario and Quebec divisions, R. Davies, Thamesville Herald; Maritime provinces division, J. R. Burnett, Charlottetown Guardian; treasurer, George E. GERMANS REGARD FORCES OF U. S. AS NEGLIGIBLE

Press Representatives Told Troops Cannot Arrive in Large Numbers Before 1918

Copenhagen, June 16, via London.—Representatives of the German press were told yesterday at the regular weekly press conference in Berlin that the arrival of American troops in noteworthy numbers in the European theatre was to be expected only in 1918. The general staff lecturer also took the ground that the American forces should be treated as a negligible quantity in the general reckoning owing to the difficulties of finding sufficient tonnage for transporting supplies. The suggestion was followed in numerous articles in the newspapers yesterday and this morning.

CRUEL TACTICS BY SUB COMMANDERS

Not Only Shoot Crews, But in One Case Guilty of Kidnapping

New York, June 16.—According to Captain Charles E. Pennywell, of Philadelphia, who has arrived here, German submarine commanders in the Mediterranean are not only shooting crews, but in at least one case, the wife and 14-year-old daughter of a sea captain were kidnapped by a U-boat commander. The captain reported that a United States consul at a North African port told him he had been informed that good sailors that 30 members of the crew of a British steamer had been deliberately shot in their lifeboats, after the vessel had been sunk by a submarine. The incident occurred about May 18, 50 miles from the eastern entrance to the straits of Gibraltar. The captain's wife and 14-year-old daughter were taken from the lifeboat, the consul said, before the U-boat began firing.
